

BULLETIN	No.	2024 / 01
	Date	24 th June 2024
	Effective	Immediate
	No. of Pages	Two

2024 Technical Regulations Two-Wheeler Racing

Existing:

4.1 SPECIFIC TECHNICAL REGULATIONS FOR STOCK (Group D)

4.1.28 Rear Swinging arm (Rear fork)

- c) A solid protective cover (shark fin) must be fixed to the swing-arm, and must always cover the opening between the lower chain run, swinging arm and the rear wheel sprocket, irrespective of the position of the rear wheel.

4.2 SPECIFIC TECHNICAL REGULATIONS FOR PROSTOCK (Group C)

4.2.28 Rear Swinging arm (Rear fork)

- g) A solid protective cover (shark fin) must be fixed to the swing-arm, and must always cover the opening between the lower chain run, swinging arm and the rear wheel sprocket, irrespective of the position of the rear wheel.

4.3 SPECIFIC TECHNICAL REGULATIONS FOR SUPERSPORT INDIAN (Group B)

4.3.28 Rear Swinging arm (Rear fork)

- e) A solid protective cover (shark fin) must be fixed to the swing-arm, and must always cover the opening between the lower chain run, swinging arm and the rear wheel sprocket, irrespective of the position of the rear wheel.

Amended:

4.1 SPECIFIC TECHNICAL REGULATIONS FOR STOCK (Group D)

4.1.28 Rear Swinging arm (Rear fork)

- c) A solid protective cover (shark fin) must be fixed to the swing-arm, and must always cover the opening between the lower chain run, swinging arm and the rear wheel sprocket, irrespective of the position of the rear wheel. Solid protective cover must be made of ABS Plastic and Plastics. Metal solid protector cover (shark fin) will not be allowed from 1st August 2024.

Member of

4.2 SPECIFIC TECHNICAL REGULATIONS FOR PROSTOCK (Group C)

4.2.28 Rear Swinging arm (Rear fork)

- g) A solid protective cover (shark fin) must be fixed to the swing-arm, and must always cover the opening between the lower chain run, swinging arm and the rear wheel sprocket, irrespective of the position of the rear wheel. Solid protective cover must be made of ABS Plastic and Plastics. Metal solid protector cover (shark fin) will not be allowed from 1st August 2024.

4.3 SPECIFIC TECHNICAL REGULATIONS FOR SUPERSPORT INDIAN (Group B)

4.3.28 Rear Swinging arm (Rear fork)

- e) A solid protective cover (shark fin) must be fixed to the swing-arm, and must always cover the opening between the lower chain run, swinging arm and the rear wheel sprocket, irrespective of the position of the rear wheel. Solid protective cover must be made of ABS Plastic and Plastics. Metal solid protector cover (shark fin) will not be allowed from 1st August 2024.

Technical Commission FMSCI

**END****

Member of

